Dominated 2020 Math League Contests Again

The Math League announced Missouri Mathematics League 2020 annual contest results. St. Louis Modern Chinese School (SLMCS, 圣路易现代中文学校) dominated the grades 6-8 math contests again for Missouri Mathematics League for both individual and school competition. SLMCS is the #1 school for all three contests for 2020. SLMCS has been the #1 school for grade 8 for 2017-2020; SLMCS entered the grade 6 contest in 2019, and won both years; SLMCS entered the grade 7 contest first time in 2020.

Seven students won a suitably engraved plaque as shown below from the Missouri Mathematics League by finishing the top two spots in the individual category. You could find more details of the grades 6-8 contest results via <https://mathleague.com/downloads/qs1920/mo-678-1920.pdf>.

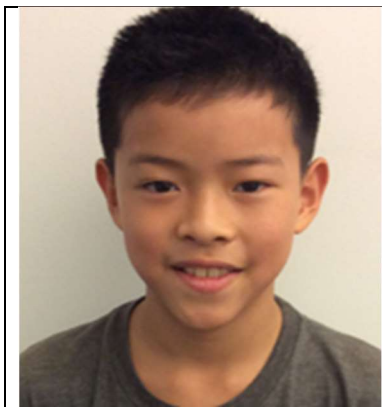

Note that Kevin Tang just graduated from Dr. Leo Liu's Math Competition Classes. He has been on the top 2 student list for the past 4 years, and the above plaque is his 2019 grade 8 contest prize. Andrew Wang and Thomas Wei took the 2020 contest via their regular school, Wydown Middle School.

Only regular schools could get the engraved plaque for school category, so SLMCS did not get any plaques for the past 4 years, even though they are the #1 school for all grades 6-8 contests they participated so far, but other schools are catching up. Below is the details for 2020 school category comparison.

Grade	SLMCS is #1	Score	School Won Plaque	Score
8	St. Louis Modern Chinese School	146	Gateway Science Academy	137
7	St. Louis Modern Chinese School	150	Wydown Middle School	146
6	St. Louis Modern Chinese School	153	Wydown Middle School	153
