Privacy Notice

When you apply, and accept an admission offer, you enter into a contract with SLMCS and agree we can process your personal information for administrative and educational purposes. The purpose of processing includes, but is not limited to:

Administering and providing education and training

Providing you with information about educational programs and services

Maintaining your student record and managing academic processes

Administering financial matters including payment of fees

Statistical and archive purposes.

SLMCS will manage your information securely and will restrict access to administrators, contractors and service providers, who will only process information in accordance with US federal and state regulations. SLMCS will put in place technical and organizational measures necessary to ensure the security of your information.

SLMCS will not disclose your information to third parties.

SLMCS will not collect or store your credit card information. All credit card payment information is handled directly by US Bank.

By enrolling as a SLMCS student, you understand that SLMCS will be collecting, storing, using and otherwise processing data about you for any purposes connected with your studies and for other legitimate reasons while you are a student. We will also use your data for certain purposes after you cease to be student (Alumni relations).

SLMCS will only use your data fairly and lawfully in accordance with our obligations under the LOPD and the GDPR. This means that we will process your data in a way which respects the principles of data protection and your rights under US federal and state regulations, the LOPD and the GDPR.

US federal and state regulations, the LOPD and the GDPR require us to keep your data secure. This means that your confidentiality will be respected, and all appropriate measures will be taken to prevent unauthorized disclosure. Only members of staff who need access to relevant parts, or all of your data, will be authorized to do so.
